CHARACTER PROFILE

This is Alexander B. Thomas, and the B stands for Broadcaster Extraordinaire. ABT strives to be a likable guy, but is a gambler with a questionable moral code. Thomas is truly the textbook definition of delusions of grandeur, favoring ridiculous outfits, a know it all attitude, and outlandish justifications.

PERSONAL PROFILE

I am a lifelong pro musician, having managed, booked, and performed in various cover bands, as well as a lifelong follower of pro wrestling. Recently, my schedule has allowed me more available weekends to work some pro wrestling shows. While it's still a new journey for me, I've been onstage in front of people, dealing with performers, and in the entertainment business since my teenage years. I'm knowledgeable, learn quickly, love being a part of a team, and want to put my skills to work for you!
